SOUTH AFRICAN WAR
Boers Are Encouraged by Recent British Reverses.

LONDON, April 7.—A Pretoria dispatch says that the British troops captured at Kornspruit have arrived there. The prisoners belong to the Prince of Wales's own regiment and the sight of the brilliantly dressed soldiers of Great Britain's crack regiment greatly delighted the burghers. The prisoners were exhibited to encourage the burghers to carry on the war and the effect was inspiring. Five hundred British subjects have been ordered to leave Johannesburg today and one hundred have been ordered to quit Pretoria.

The British detachment captured by the Boers at Readersburg numbered 581 men, of whom 45 were killed and wounded. The Boer force that attacked them is estimated at 3,800, with five guns.

How can we afford to sell such high grade clothing at such close prices? Our answer is pure and simple; ours is a modern store, constructed strictly on progressive plans. Our clothing is sold on the smallest margin of profit, depending on a large volume of business. The more clothing we sell the greater our purchasing power, the lower our prices; that's the story in a nutshell. Whites.

Remarkable Cure of Rheumatism.
KENNA, Jackson Co., W. Va. About three years ago my wife had an attack of rheumatism which confined her to her bed for a month and rendered her unable to walk a step without assistance. I purchased a fifty cent bottle and used it according to the directions and the next morning she walked to breakfast without assistance in any manner, and she has not had a similar attack since.—A. B. PARSONS, For sale by Hannah Bros., 21 South Palafox street.

A HINT.
Coffee, which makes the politician wise, And see through all things with his half-shut eyes. —Popo.

Politicians are not the only persons who like good coffee, and if the politicians who are now engaged in shelling the woods of Escambia county for votes would treat their intended victims to a good, hot cup of coffee, instead of "red liquor" and campaign cigars, they would all stand a better chance for a full vote and their share of it.

The coffee of which the poet sang was identical in quality, flavor and aroma with the choice blends now offered to a discriminating public by C. H. Gonzalez & Son, and no one who gives them a fair trial ever regrets it. This excellent house also presents to the housekeepers of Pensacola one of the best selected assortments of fine fancy and staple groceries in the city, and invites a trial from those who have not yet opened an account with them.
